

5TH ANNUAL FIREFIGHTER APPRECIATION NIGHT

Bring the family for a cook-out, concert & ballgame as we support our local heroes.

Thursday, June 2, 2011

Brittlebank Park Tailgate Party & Picnic

BYOC (Bring your own chair for an afternoon party!)*

Cookout & Concert 5:00-7:00 PM RiverDogs Game 7:05 PM

A Collaboration of MUSC Children's Hospital & South Carolina Firefighters

Come help ServiceMaster of Charleston & our local Firefighters raise money in support of Camp "Can" Do. This camp is designed specially for burned children in association with MUSC! To learn more visit their website: www.scburnedchildrensfund.org

BRING THE KIDS AND LET THEM ENJOY THE JUMP CASTLE

4 WEBER GAS GRILLS
will be given away
to the Winners for their Fire Station

3 Attendance Drawings*
1 Tire Change Contest Winner
must be present to win*

TRY THE SERVICEMASTER PIT CREW TIRE CHANGE GAME

FEATURING: EDDIE BUSH!

National Recording Artist Eddie Bush joins ServiceMaster of Charleston for the 5th Annual Firefighters Appreciation Night. With his hits "Hard to Stop a Train" & "My Kind of Beautiful", along with his soon-to-be released "Calloused Hands", Eddie brings the party to Brittlebank! Visit www.EddieBush.com to read & listen to what Eddie's all about!

